

EARLY VOTE ON TARIFF

Democrats Will Push
Bill as Rapidly as Possible and Republicans
Will Not Delay Action

Washington, Aug. 1.—All indications point to an early vote on the tariff bill in the Senate. The Republicans, realizing the hopelessness of opposing the bill, are not going to delay its passage, and of course the Democrats will push it just as fast as possible.

Various predictions are being made as to when the bill will become law. Senator Smoot, who is leading the regular Republicans in the tariff fight, thinks the bill will pass the Senate about August 20, and if this should be the case it ought to be ready for the President's signature by September 1.

No one expects the bill to be in conference long. It is true that the Senate will make a large number of changes in the bill, but none of the Senate amendments will be so radical as to tie the bill up in conference a long while.

Will Congress adjourn, recess or continue in session to consider currency legislation after the tariff passes is a question that is causing a large number of statesmen considerable worry these hot days. If President Wilson means what he says when he declares that he wants currency legislation before adjournment, there will be currency legislation before adjournment.

Take Orders From President.
The President is running things at the capitol as well as at the White House. The Democratic leaders in both houses of Congress are taking his orders, and if he insists on currency legislation at this session, as he says he is going to, there will be a chorus of ayes from the Democrats in Congress. The President's domination of the tariff situation has demonstrated conclusively that the Democrats of the House and Senate dare not oppose his wishes.

Congressional Record Silent.
There is still some talk that western Democratic senators will not stand for free wool and that one or two of them will insist upon a small duty. Such talk received a boost for a short time the other day when Senator Chamberlain of Oregon intimated very strongly in the Senate that he did not consider himself bound by the agreement of the Democratic caucus and that he felt free to vote accordingly to his own dictates. The next day, however, Senator Chamberlain's statement in the Senate did not appear in the Congressional Record. Why it did not is a question that is being asked with considerable persistence.

Republican leaders still firmly believe there is no chance to beat President Wilson on free wool. When the bill comes from conference and is before the senate for the final vote they expect every Democratic senator to get in line for it and they have no doubt that when the bill does come from conference, wool will be on the free list. One or two western Democrats may vote against free wool before the bill goes to conference, but they will not vote against the conference report even though the bill provides for free wool.

Senator Smoot is receiving hundreds of requests from all over the country for copies of his recent speech analyzing the Democratic bill. The senator has had a large number printed in pamphlet form to supply the demands made upon him. He is receiving congratulations from all sides, even the strongest opponents of the protective principle recognizing the Utah senator's speech as a masterpiece. Although Senator Smoot is recognized as one of the hardest workers in the senate, a number of senators expressed amazement at his being able to master the details of the pending tariff bill in so short a time.

WORLD'S MARKETS

WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 2.—Extreme dullness prevailed at the opening of today's stock market. Price changes in no instance exceeded fractions and Consolidated Gas, Amalgamated, Canadian Pacific and a few other active issues were lower. The only gains recorded were by New York Central, Western Maryland and Texas Oil.

Increasing dullness overtook the market in the first hour, the ticker at frequent intervals coming to an absolute stop. Except for some slight improvement from early declines, notably in Canadian Pacific, no material changes were recorded.

Chicago Grain.
Chicago, Aug. 2.—Corn today swung to a new high price record for the season. Not only had there been no break in the drought, but rainless skies were predicted for the next three days, with rising temperature in prospect. Increasing damage to crops added to the excitement among speculators and brought a huge volume of trade, new investors taking hold, old ones taking profits, and some old ones extending former lines.

An advance of 1-2 to 1-2 to 1-5-8c over last night showed itself in corn at the very outset. The September option started at 68 5-8 to 69 1-4 a gain of 1-2 to 1 1-8, and rose to 69 3-8. May, in which the transactions were not so heavy, jumped higher than the other months.

Notwithstanding active selling by leading houses, wheat prices climbed influenced by corn. Unfavorable advices from Russia and Roumania counted also against the bears. September opened 1-8 to 1-4c higher at 91 to 91 1-8c, touched 90 7-8@91c, and rose to 91 3-4c.
Oats followed other grain upward. September started 1-4@5-8c higher at 42 to 42 3-8c and reached 42 1-2@42 5-8c.
Provisions weakened with hogs. First sales were 10c lower to 5c higher, with September options as follows:
Pork, $21.02 1/2.
Lard, $11.50 to $11.85.
Ribs, $11.62 1/2.
Wheat—Beginning of harvest in Canada with weather excellent led to some reaction. The close was easy with December 5-8@3-4c net higher at 91 1/2@91 5-8c.
Corn—A further upturn ensued but general realizing sales by holders caused a temporary setback. The close was firm with September 1-3-8 to 1-1-2c net higher at 69 1/2 to 69 5-8c.

COMPOSER LOVES BOXING GAME

Maurice Maeterlinck, the celebrated author, who is one of the most enthusiastic patrons of the boxing game in France.
M. Maeterlinck saw his first fight in this country and the manly art of fist fighting made an instantaneous hit with him. Since that time he has never missed an opportunity to witness a bout of prominence.
In France Maeterlinck has taken boxing lessons from Tommy Ryan, the American boxer, who was a big factor in popularizing the game in Paris. The author has boxed many times with George Carpenter, the French middleweight champion, who will visit America this fall. Carpenter was surprised by the adeptness with which Maeterlinck handled the gloves and did not have the easy time he expected in standing off the attacks of his distinguished opponent.

JACKSON LEADS IN THE BATTING

Chicago, Aug. 2.—The pace set by Joe Jackson proved too swift for Ty Cobb this week and the Detroit slugger fell behind in the American league batting averages. Jackson pounded his percentage up to .408 but Cobb dropped to .396. Jackson has been in only 69.

Dan Murphy, Philadelphia, is third in the American league with .379. Then comes Speaker, Boston, with .371; Caldwell, New York, .355; Hendricks, Boston, .351; Collins, Philadelphia, .348; McInnes, Philadelphia, .333; Gandill, Washington, .332; and La Jole, Cleveland, who ranks tenth with .331.

Charles McDonald, Boston, continues to be the real leader in the National league with .371, though Earl Fingling, Brooklyn, for 23 games, is hitting .393. Hyatt, Pittsburgh, is third with .352; R. Miller, Philadelphia, fourth with .359, and Daubert, Brooklyn, fifth with .349. Then comes Walsh, Philadelphia, .346; Cravath, Philadelphia, .341; W. Collins, Boston, .333; Zimmerman, Chicago, .318; and Hess, Boston, .317.

Pitching records to date show Wagner of Brooklyn, the only undefeated hurler in the National league, with two games to his credit, though he has taken part in eleven. Humphries, Chicago, and Demaree, New York, are tied with 9 wins and 2 defeats. Mathewson, New York, is next with eighteen victories and five defeats, while Marquard, New York, is fifth with 14 wins and five defeats. Boehling of Washington who suffered his first defeat the other day, is ahead among the American league pitchers with 11 victories and one defeat, up to the time of closing the unofficial averages for the week. His teammate, Walter Johnson, ranks next with 23 games won and five lost. Then comes Bender, Philadelphia, with 16 won and five lost; Plank, Philadelphia, with fifteen and five; and Brown, Philadelphia, with 13 and six.

SUFFRAGISTS CONTINUE CAMPAIGN

Washington, Aug. 2.—Having routed the senate, the suffragists who are here from all parts of the country now have decided to lay siege to Washington. The automobiles in which the crusaders traveled here, lie idle in their garages while the women are engaged in holding street meetings in the hope of converting the populace of the capitol to their cause. Miss Helen Todd of Chicago and San Francisco, Miss Jeannette Rankin of California, Mrs. Glendower Evans of Boston and other leaders are holding both day and evening meetings on the street corners. The heavy rains and disagreeable weather of the last few days so far have failed to dampen the women's ardor.

A FLAMING FINISH.
"My grandfather," said the old-timer, "used to put all his money in his stocking."
"What, things hadn't changed much?" said his old friend.
"My grandson, who's takin' a course in modern deportment at one o' them Eastern colleges, puts most all his money into socks."—Judge.
